

Intergenerational Art contest

Poster created by Clarissa Fairbanks, seventh grade student, Paul T. Memorial school, Tununak, AK

At the Older Persons Action Group which publishes the senior voice newspaper column conducts an annual statewide intergenerational Art contest. Several winning entries from previous contest are on display today in the Cuddy Center. The guidelines for the current contest elders and used educating one another, which includes $2000 in cash prizes, information is available at the Older Persons Action Groups Table